OPTIMA HEALTH HIRING 350 NEW TEAM MEMBERS IN VIRGINIA

OVERVIEW

- Optima Health is hiring 350 new staff to service the soon to be available Optima Health Community Care product.
- Optima Health Community Care will provide Medicaid coverage for Virginians who are elderly or disabled.
- Interested individuals can search for opportunities at managedcareservicesinc.recsolu.com/external/jobs.

Virginia based Optima Health is currently recruiting 350 new staff for positions throughout the Commonwealth, including 170 in the Hampton Roads area. The creation of new jobs will facilitate a contract Optima Health signed last month with the Virginia Department of Medical Assistance Services to serve a subset of Virginia's Medicaid population, including individuals who are elderly or disabled. Optima Health will provide the services with its product, Optima Health Community Care.

Hiring for the positions will take place from April – December 2017, as Optima Health Community Care is rolled out across the state beginning with the Tidewater region on August 1, 2017.

Approximately 100 of the staff openings are for the Care Coordinator position, which requires the qualification of Registered Nurse, Licensed Practical Nurse or Licensed Clinical Social Worker. Care Coordinators will help members understand their covered services and how to access services when needed. They will also help members work with their doctors and other health care professionals to complete regular care assessments and carry out individualized care plans.

Other positions being recruited for include Care Coordinator Technicians, as well supporting roles such as Claims Processors, Customer Service Representatives, Information Technology Administrators, Pharmacy Authorization Coordinators and Member Outreach Representatives.

"We're really looking to fill these positions with the professionals who have a passion working with our elderly or disabled citizens," said Carla Olson, Optima Health Director of Human Resources. "We know it's our people that set us apart and make it possible to achieve successful outcomes for our members."

Optima Health employees say the company is a great place to work. In a 2016 employee satisfaction survey, highly-rated areas were employee engagement, overall workplace satisfaction and the likelihood of referring friends and family to the company for services.¹

Individuals who are interested in the new employment opportunities can search and apply for positions at the following website: managedcareservicesinc.recsolu.com/external/jobs.
